'IN ACTION'

An event-full time at Upton Parish Council

Upton Community Survey

Thank you to everyone who completed the Upton Community Survey – we really appreciate the feedback and we will be working hard to act on the things you asked us about.

One of the key messages from the survey was that you would like more community events. So, at your service – we hopped straight on it:

October - Diwali Walk of Light Event

We partnered with The Lewis Foundation and the local community to support a free Diwali Walk of Light event at the Elgar Centre in October, raising funds for The Lewis Foundation.

Thanks to Upton Parish Council's support, attendees of all ages enjoyed activities like arts and crafts, lantern making, henna tattoos, and traditional Indian clothing, along with performances and refreshments from The Elgar Centre Coffee Shop—all proceeds benefiting the charity.

The event concluded with the symbolic Light of Hope Walk around Upton Country Park, where participants carried lanterns celebrating remembrance and hope.

If your group wants to collaborate with Upton Parish Council on future events, please contact us for more information.

November – Remembrance Day and Wreath Laying

Essential tree maintenance at Upton Memorial Car Park and repairs to The Wooden Soldier Memorial's arm were completed in preparation for the annual act of remembrance held on Tuesday, 11th November. Members of Upton Parish Council and the Duston & District Branch of the Royal British Legion, along with community participants, attended a service and wreath-laying ceremony, followed by refreshments at Spectrum.

December - UMRA Christmas Fayre

We're thrilled to team up with Upton Meadows Residents Association (UMRA), Upton Meadows Primary School, and The Land Trust for this year's Christmas Fayre on Upton Square. Join us on Thursday, 4th December, from 3:30pm to 6:00pm, as we gather around the Christmas tree to enjoy delicious festive food and drinks. There will be live music from Lincoln playing your favourite Christmas songs, and a chance to snap a photo with Santa's reindeer. Plus, if you've been good, you just might spot Santa Claus passing by on his sleigh!

Talk to your local elected representatives about issues in Upton

A reminder that your WNC Ward Councillors Kathryn Shaw and Michael Stratton will be holding surgeries on the last Monday of the month, 5-7pm at The Elgar Centre. Upton Parish Councillors will also be available to discuss issues, ideas and suggestions.
